From wide-opened eyes which have since aged ten years we have viewed this past decade through smiles and through tears through first childhood crushes and long-buried pets,

*through the bad taste of need
-having too many debts, through the praise we've received for projects well done, through the campaigns and struggles we've lost and we've won,
through the tales of reporters on decisive events,
We have seen our great system and some of its dents*

Through friends we have made and friends we have lost, in sharing our love
sometimes at high cost.
We have learned about Life on a miniature scale.

It's the sea of adulthood
that now we must sail.
Now it is time
to set out from the past,
It is time toward the future
our glance should be cast.

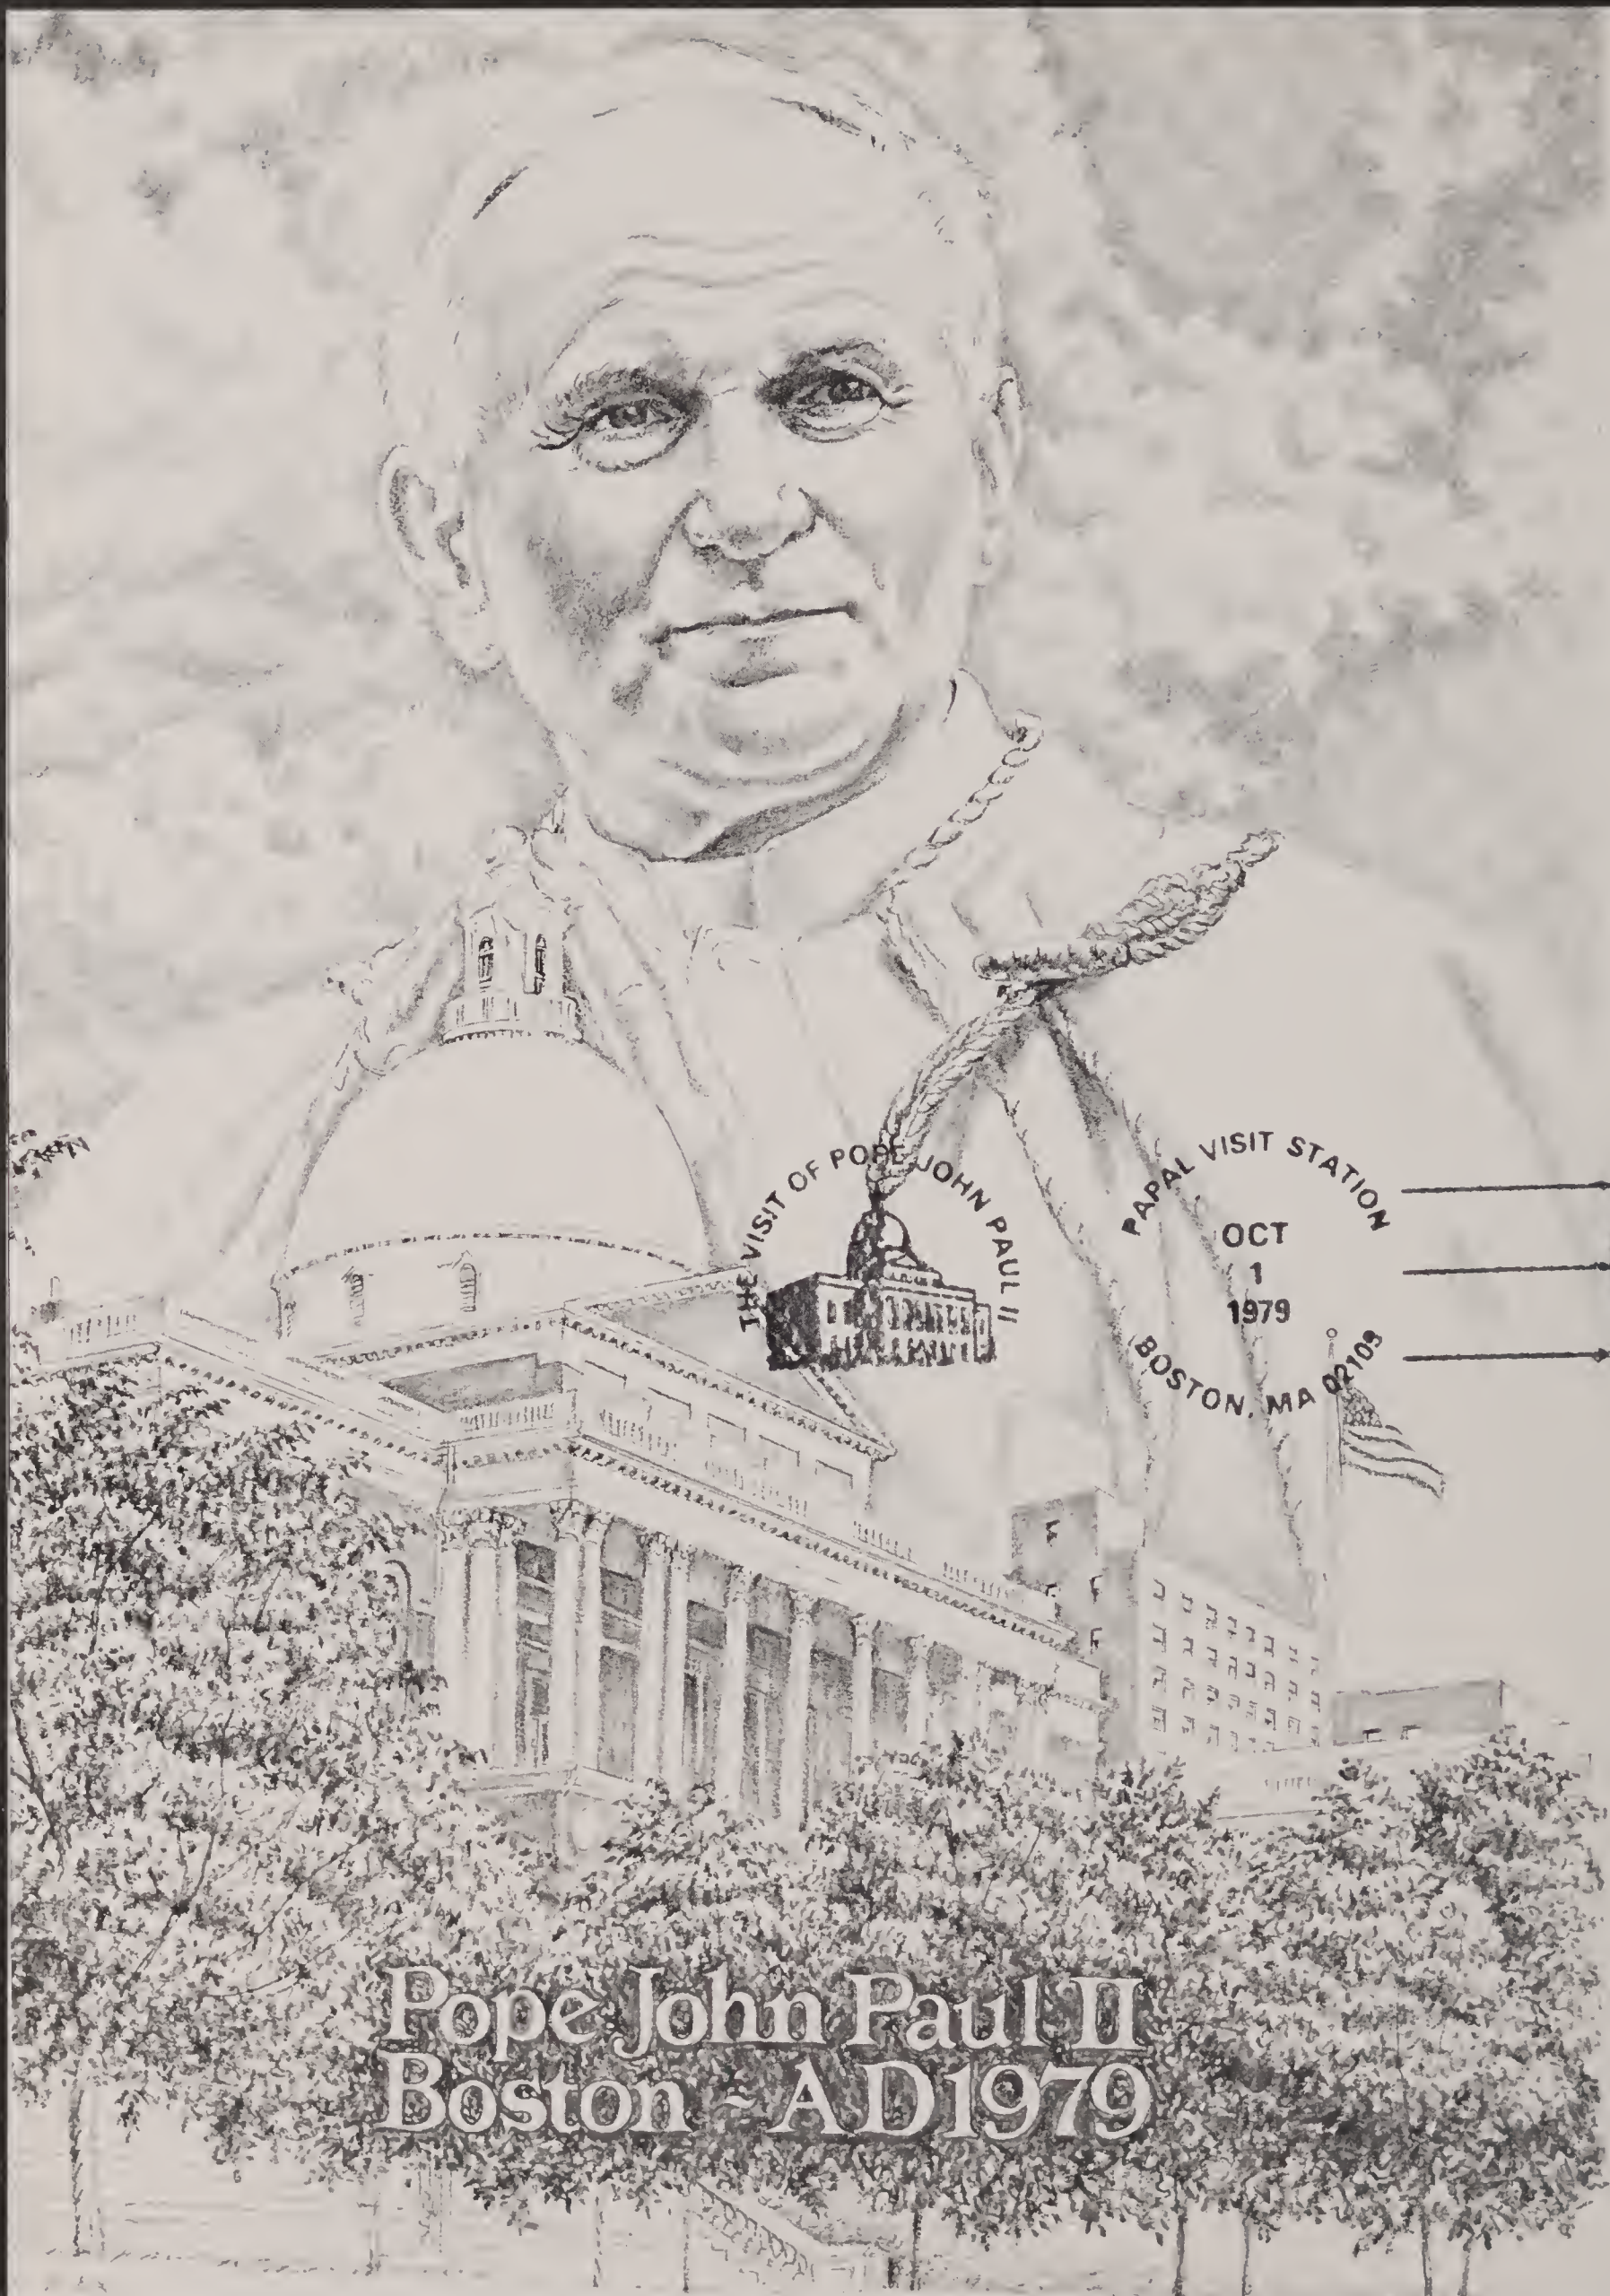

Ten summers
Ten winters
Ten autumns and springs, Each one has flown by on its swift golden wings

Behind the last season,
a new flock ensues
The 80's it's called, bringing yet unmade news.

I have been here, Soon I'll go.
I guess it's leaving that helps you grow.
My friends have known the me that's real,
But the days will close with tears that seal
A bond so strong that binds our hearts,
As the old day ends and a new day starts.
Remember me and what I gave.
As you go on, friends, be brave.

Well friends, we've made it through,
Now we're on our way to a life that's new.
Remembering all the times we had I hope our friendships stay iron-clad.
I wish you luck with what life may bring.
You always have my blessing.

MONTREAL TRIP

ON Friday morning 45 students from all the school classes and three teachers boarded a Delta Air Jet at Logan Airport. We arrived in Montreal at the airport about 50 minutes from the airport, we were in a bus through Montreal to the hotel, Loews La Cite'. The hotel was a small city. Downstairs from the lobby were restaurants, shops in a large indoor racquetball court and health spas. There were an outdoor and an indoor activities were held in Montreal Expos

A lot of time was spent in Montreal. We found that people could speak both French and English. The food prices were a lot cheaper but you have the same quality as the American food in Canada, but you have to pay in Canadian dollars which is cheaper than
